Civics Education: Learner Outcomes

United States National Government

- 1. Identify the Constitution as the foundation of our national government
- 2. Understand how the historical backdrop of the Constitutional Convention shaped the document.
- 3. Apply the goals listed in the Preamble to our world today
- 4. Explain the Amendment process
- 5. Understand why the Amendment process was designed to be difficult
- 6. Design an alternate Amendment process
- 7. Defend the current Amendment process
- 8. Identify the protections listed in the Bill of Rights
- 9. Create and identify examples of Americans exercising protections and freedoms from the Bill of Rights
- 10. Explain the difference between a world with and without the Bill of Rights
- 11. Categorize the remaining Constitutional Amendments
- 12. Define the different Articles of the Constitution
- 13. Explain the significance to the order of the Articles and what each contains
- 14. Define the role of each branch of government
- 15. Describe the concept of checks and balances
- 16. Propose changes to the powers of the three branches based on today's historical context
- 17. Envision and describe a U.S. government with fewer checks and balances

Economics

- 1. Understand the concept of supply and demand
- 2. Explain the effect on economies when supply or demand are out of balance
- 3. Contrast a market economic system with a command and control system
- 4. Identify the key components to different business organizational types
- 5. Explain the theory of business cycles
- 6. Analyze the role that government regulation plays in the economy
- 7. Persuade someone that more or less government economic regulation is necessary
- 8. Measure our economy compared to our European and Asia peers

Other Forms of Governments

- 1. Define Parliamentary Government
- 2. Define Authoritarian Government
- 3. Analyze the difference between democratic and authoritarian governments
- 4. Contrast a Republican form of government against a Parliamentary form of government
- 5. Justify the use of democratic governments

Politics

- 1. Compare our two party system with multi party systems of Europe and Asia
- 2. Illustrate the pros and cons of each system
- 3. Defend either type of system as superior

Civics Education: Learner Outcomes

- 4. Speculate how our current national problems would be handled differently under a multi-party system
- 5. List the functions of American Political parties
- 6. Evaluate different third parties in the American political system
- 7. Speculate how our current national problems would be handled differently if a third party of the student's choice were to come to power

Legal System

- 1. Define civil law
- 2. Define criminal law
- 3. Explain the difference between civil and criminal law
- 4. Examine different situations and determine if it is a violation of civil or criminal law
- 5. Justify our current system of trial by jury
- 6. Understand the role of citizens under a jury system