

Contrast Tomography

Contrast Tomography uses rotating X Ray machines to create a cross-sectional image of the body. They are more detailed than your typical X Rays as these allow you to see softer tissues, blood vessels and bone.

Video Link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TgjFfD_f910

